UP AND AT 'EM

By Hal E. Roach. ✓

MAY 28 1924 ✓

This comedy is performed by trained animals.

Herman , a poor mother's boy seeks to better himself in the big city. He secures a position in a bank as a messenger and later on while carrying a bag of securities to another bank, he is attacked by two other men. He bravely fights them off but he is finally knocked unconscious. He quickly recovers, however, starts out in pursuit, captures the thieves and recovers the money . He is then given a better job in the bank as a reward.
